

Master of Education With Concentration and Program Option

Mental Health Counseling

62 credits: Core program — LMHC

62 credits: Addiction Counseling — LMHC, CADAC, LADC

MENTAL HEALTH COUNSELING provides graduate level professional training for mental health counseling licensure, with a strong commitment to an evolving multicultural society.

Learning Outcomes — Students learn and apply the principles and best practices of counseling, including various psychotherapeutic techniques for work with individuals, couples, families and groups; group counseling, and consultation to organizations and communities. They study human development, dysfunctional behavior and mental illness. They learn to assess, diagnose and treat within the scope of the counselor's practice, and become able to utilize community resources for referrals. They learn and apply strategies for prevention and treatment of substance abuse, domestic violence, the spectrum of mental illnesses; and learn to use psychoeducational techniques aimed to prevent such disorders. They study research design and methodology, and conduct their own research project. They become familiar with state regulations applicable to mental health practice and licensure.

Cambridge College strives to cover academic requirements for the following credentials, for which graduates may apply:

- Licensed Mental Health Counselor (LMHC) licensure by the Mass. Board of Registration of Allied Mental Health Professionals. Candidates must also pass an exam and complete two years of post-master's supervised clinical practice.
- Certified Alcohol & Drug Abuse Counselor (CADAC) certification by MBSACC and Licensed Alcohol & Drug Counselor (LADC) licensing by the Mass. Dept. of Public Health.

Regulations may change at any time. Cambridge College reserves the right to alter the program accordingly. Program coordinators are available to advise students.

Students are responsible for monitoring and understanding state requirements and regulations, and for ensuring that their program of study complies with all requirements for licensure/certification.
