Cambridge College in Chesapeake welcomes author Corey L. Rhodes

Author of Keep Your Head Up featured at book signing on March 5, 2011, 10am-1pm

Cambridge College in Chesapeake, Virginia, is pleased to announce that alumnus Corey L. Rhodes will be appearing on campus in Chesapeake this Saturday at 10am. Mr. Rhodes will be discussing his book, Keep Your Head Up, the story of a young boy's desire to overcome academic challenges while struggling with the emotional burden of not having a father in his life.

Mr. Rhodes holds a Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies in Educational Leadership from Cambridge College. He is a native of Norfolk, Virginia and has spent over 12 years in the field of education. He has worked in both charter and public schools, and served as an educational consultant to child care centers, schools, and various educational agencies.

The event will take place on Saturday, March 5, 2011, from 10:30am until 1:00 pm, at the Cambridge College campus at 1403 Greenbrier Parkway, Suite 300, in Chesapeake. For more information, please contact Jeri Clay at 757-424-0333 x 6202 or via email at Jeri.Clay@cambridgecollege.edu.

Cambridge College offers master's degree programs in education, psychology, counseling, and management, as well as undergraduate programs, and certificate programs in advanced graduate studies.

A leader in providing education to a diverse student body, not for its own sake, but because it enriches all of us, Cambridge College has been recognized for serving communities across the United States. With seven regional centers nationwide, it is helping over 9,000 adults realize their own power to change their lives through advanced education.

Cambridge College Cambridge College is accredited by the New England Association of Schools and Colleges through its Commission on Institutions of Higher Education. Cambridge College is certified by the State Council of Higher Education for Virginia (SCHEV) (<http://www.schev.edu/>) to operate as an institution of higher education and to confer degrees at 1403 Greenbrier Parkway, Suite 300, Chesapeake, VA.
