Cambridge College Names Gregory S. White New Assistant Director

CAMBRIDGE, MA— Cambridge College has appointed Gregory S. White, of Medford, Massachusetts, as the new Assistant Director of its Ontario, California Regional Center. Mr. White joined Cambridge College’s California Center as an admissions counselor when it first opened in 2005. During this time, Mr. White has been instrumental in assisting Center Director Janis Peterson in the growth and success of the school.

“Greg brings to the position a plethora of knowledge and experience in the area of administration, management and education,” says Dr. Anthony DeMatteo, Vice President for Sites Administration and Dean of the School of Education at Cambridge College. Mr. White is a graduate of the University of Massachusetts, Boston where he earned his degree in Communications and a Master’s in Business Management from National University in San Diego, CA.

Cambridge College has its main campus located in Cambridge, MA, and five Regional Centers around the country plus one in Puerto Rico. The Ontario Regional Center is Cambridge College’s newest center and already serves over 200 students. Nearly half of the student population is comprised of minority students.

Founded in 1971, Cambridge College is a private, non-profit institution dedicated to providing academically excellent, time-efficient, and cost-effective higher education for a diverse population of working adults for whom those opportunities may have been limited or denied. Cambridge College has sites in Cambridge, Springfield, Lawrence, (MA), Chesapeake (VA), Augusta (GA), Ontario (CA), and San Juan (Puerto Rico), and are all committed to the Cambridge College model of making higher education accessible.
