Cambridge College Savannah Commencement to be held Feb. 10

SAVANNAH— Cambridge College will hold its annual Commencement on Sunday, February 10th at 12 noon at the Johnny Mercer Civic Center and the ceremony will showcase several graduates and their messages of encouragement and inspiration for their fellow classmates.

Cambridge College is taking a new approach to their 2008 Commencement ceremonies in Savannah, GA. “Rather than having a traditional keynote speaker, this year’s commencement ceremony was designed to focus on an exchange of ideas from the students,” said Vice President of Academic Affairs Dr. Joseph C. Reed. “The words of our graduates serve to challenge us, inspire us and provoke us to take renewed action. Their words embody the visions and dreams that we all share for the success of each member of this graduating class.”

Dr. Reed added that the graduate remarks will come from students representing each of the Cambridge College degree programs. Utaff W. Gordon and L. Kraig Hawkins will represent the Master of Education degree program; Cassandra Gordon-Scott will speak on behalf of the Bachelor of Arts program; and Timeka Lamback Cline will represent the Certificate of Advanced Graduate Studies graduates.

The ceremony will also feature student participation when Cassandra Wilson (M.Ed.) and Teia Grayned (M.Ed.) deliver the Invocation and Benediction, respectively. Graduate Venicia N. Richardson (B.A.) will also perform “When You Believe” as part of the ceremony.
