Kevin A. Sweet hired as first Crisis Management Plan Officer at Cambridge College

CAMBRIDGE— Cambridge College has taken an important step in serving its community. Kevin A. Sweet, of Brockton, has been hired as the College's first full time Facilities, Environmental Safety and Crisis Management Plan Officer.

In his new position, Mr. Sweet is responsible for the design, development, and implementation of College-wide safety and crisis management policies, procedures, and protocols. He will design and deliver associated trainings in Cambridge College's multiple building locations in Cambridge and across the country. Mr. Sweet's role will include significant contributions to the College disaster recovery planning activities and he will be Co-Chair of the College Safety, Crisis Management and Disaster Recovery Committee.
