Cambridge College Hosts Open House January 5th

SPRINGFIELD—Cambridge College is opening its doors to the Springfield community. The Cambridge College Springfield Regional Center will host an Enrollment Open House at 9 a.m. on Saturday, January 5th at the College's Springfield Regional Center, 570 Cottage Street.

Prospective students will have the opportunity to meet with admissions counselors, financial aid representatives, program coordinators and faculty members to ask questions regarding topics such as the application process, various licensures, and the Cambridge College adult learning model. Faculty will be on hand to discuss the College's academic offerings including Master of Education licensure and non-licensure, Master of Education Counseling Psychology licensure and non-licensure, AdaptNet Master of Management and Undergraduate programs.

The Cambridge College Springfield Regional Center opened in 1972. It is the oldest of the College's eight regional centers and currently serves over 600 graduate and undergraduate students. Founded in 1971, Cambridge College is a private, non-profit institution dedicated to providing academically excellent, time-efficient, and cost-effective higher education for a diverse population of working adults for whom those opportunities may have been limited or denied. In addition to Springfield, Cambridge College has centers in Cambridge and Lawrence, MA; Chesapeake and South Boston, VA; Augusta, GA; Ontario, CA; Memphis, TN; and San Juan, Puerto Rico.
