Cambridge College Springfield Regional Center to Host Career Development Night

SPRINGFIELD, MA— The Cambridge College Springfield Regional Center wants to help shape your career. Cambridge College is hosting a Career Development Night at 6 p.m. on Tuesday, April 21st at the Springfield Regional Center, 570 Cottage Street, Springfield.

Cambridge College will kick off the night with a special program devoted to helping individuals achieve their career goals, whether that is an increase in salary or finding the perfect career. Hire Aspirations Career Counseling Center will present a one hour workshop on how to find a job—and a career—in a bad economy. Following the career workshop, participants will have the opportunity to submit their resumes to local companies, school districts and agencies at the job fair and speak to Cambridge College alumni about their experiences in their respective academic programs.

“With the current economic situation, events like this are more important than ever, because it shows people who already have good skills and work experience how to capitalize on that in order to land a job,” said Springfield Regional Center Director Dr. Richard Turner. “There aren’t as many jobs available these days, but there are some, and it’s important to know how to find them and secure them, now more than ever.”

The event is family-friendly and adults are encouraged to bring their children. Mad Science!, a fun and interactive educational science show will occupy the children while their parents look for a new career.

The event is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Meaghan Prendergast at 1-800-829-4723 x6623 or Meaghan.prendergast@cambridgecollege.edu.
