Humanitarian Dr. Rev. Gloria White-Hammond to Speak to Cambridge College Students

CAMBRIDGE— Cambridge College students will get a glimpse of international disparities when the Rev. Dr. Gloria E. White-Hammond speaks to the Cambridge College community about her experiences from her trip to Darfur on Thursday, April 17th, from 6-8 p.m. in Room 152, 1000 Massachusetts Avenue, Cambridge, MA 02138.

Dr. White-Hammond's humanitarian work has had a global impact. In February 2005, she traveled into Darfur, western Sudan to listen and learn from females affected by genocide in Internally Displaced Persons camps. Dr. White-Hammond's trip was the subject of a Liz Walker Journey Productions documentary entitled "A Glory From the God." The documentary, as told by former WBZ-TV personality Liz Walker, tells the story of Dr. White-Hammond's trip and the organization Dr. White-Hammond co-founded in 2002, My Sister's Keeper. Rev. Dr. White-Hammond has a long history of involvement in community service. She is the founder of and consultant to the church-based creative writing/mentoring ministry called “Do The Write Thing” for high-risk black adolescent females. The project, which began in 1994 with four girls, now serves over 200 young women through small groups in two Boston public schools, two juvenile detention facilities in Boston and on site at Bethel AME Church. In 2003, Rev. White-Hammond became the Co-Convener of The Red Tent Group with Rabbi Elaine Zecher of Temple Israel, which brings together Christian women and Jewish women for small group Torah/Bible study.

Rev. Dr. White-Hammond has been the Co-Pastor of Bethel AME Church in Boston, MA since 1997 and a pediatrician at the South End Community Health Center since 1981, where she recently retired after 26 years. She was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in biology from Boston University, a Doctorate of Medicine from Tufts Medical School and a Master of Divinity from Harvard Divinity School.

The lecture is free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Carol Pepi at carol.pepi@cambridgecollege.edu or 617-240-0742.
