Cambridge College Chancellor Eileen Moran Brown to Receive 2007 Good Scout Award

CAMBRIDGE— Cambridge College Chancellor Eileen Moran Brown has earned the ultimate Boy Scout patch. Chancellor Brown been chosen to receive the 2007 Good Scout Award for her outstanding leadership across the community and the nation from the Boston Minuteman Council and the Boy Scouts of America. Chancellor Brown will accept the award at a noon luncheon on Tuesday, June 26, 2007 at the Charles Hotel in Harvard Square, Cambridge.

“It is an honor for me to be presented with the Good Scout Award this year, acknowledging my work as Chancellor and Founder of Cambridge College,” said Chancellor Brown. “The College’s mission to provide access and opportunity for higher education has been an important addition to the world of higher education. Through the College, we are able to support many people who commit their lives to serving others.”

For the past 24 years, the Cambridge Good Scout Award has been presented to a person who has demonstrated that he or she is a leader among leaders. Past recipients of this prestigious award include Mitt Romney, Luis Tiant, Carl Barron, Bob Kraft, Margaret McKenna and Lou Gorman.

Chancellor Brown, a former teacher and Harvard graduate, founded Cambridge College in 1971. As the College's founder and first President, Chancellor Brown began the College as a program to meet the certification needs of 100 local teachers. Today, Cambridge College serves over 8,400 students every year in eight locations and offers degrees in education, human services, management and psychology.

Cambridge College is a private, non-profit institution dedicated to providing academically excellent, time-efficient, and cost-effective higher education for a diverse population of working adults for whom those opportunities may have been limited or denied. Cambridge College has sites in Cambridge, Springfield and Lawrence, MA; Chesapeake and South Boston, VA; Augusta, GA; Ontario, CA; and San Juan, Puerto Rico, all committed to the Cambridge College model of making higher education accessible.
