

Cambridge College Alumni Celebrate in Savannah

On Saturday, February 9th Cambridge College alumni and graduates gathered to celebrate Commencement weekend in Savannah, GA. There was certainly a reason to celebrate on the eve of the 2008 Commencement ceremony, as 450 new graduates would join the ranks of their fellow alumni the very next day.

Over 200 alumni, graduates and family members ate, drank and danced up a storm at the party which was hosted by the Cambridge College Alumni Association at the Hilton Savannah Desoto Hotel. The event was a great opportunity for Cambridge College students of the past, present and perhaps the future to mingle and exchange stories and experiences about the College.

After brief welcome remarks from several College administrators and a raffle, the alumni were ready to celebrate. The evening was an excellent way to welcome the new graduates to the community and to celebrate those who have stayed connected to the College.
