

Free full-text Books Online

Need more than the 53,000+ primarily non-fiction academic books in the Cambridge College Online Library?

Are you looking for literature, poetry, classics, and a lot more?

Many public libraries now offer free online books. Check with your local public library

- If you live in Massachusetts, you can get a Boston Public Library card and access their online book collection at <http://www.bpl.org/electronic/ebook.asp>
- Ask about free online audiobook collections, which many public libraries now carry. They download to your MP3 player

There are also public websites that offer free full-text books online, although most are older and out of copyright. Check the collections at:

Google Books at <http://books.google.com> is amazing!

- Be sure to search it for your subject area!
- Click “Advanced Book Search” and check “Full View Only” to limit the search to full-text results
- “PartialView” can also provide plenty of full-text
