

School Affiliation	Puerto Rico Instructional Site, Graduate School of Education
Rank:	Adjunct Instructor
Date of Hire:	2002
Education:	B.A. History (American History). University of California, Berkeley. M.A. English Literature and Linguistics. University of Puerto Rio, Rio Piedras, College of Humanities, English Graduate Department. Ed. D degree, Faculty of Pedagogy, UPR-Rio Piedras campus. Curriculum and Teaching Specialty in ESL.

Biographical Sketch:

Born in Puerto Rico. Raised in Vallejo, California. Returned to Puerto Rico to live with parents. Since the 1970's was Married and Divorced. Have one daughter. Active member of the International Baha'i Community and Baha'i community in Puerto Rico.

Courses

Developing a Thematic Curriculum
 New Concepts in the Teaching of ESL
 ESL Curriculum Development
 Methodology for the Teaching of ESL
 Multicultural Diversity in the Classroom
 Second -Language /Acquisition
 Literacy and ESL in the Elementary School

Professional Membership:

Committee for the Advancement of Women
 Baha'i Community of Puerto Rico
 TESOL of Puerto Ric0

Other Interests:

Collaborative work with the Baha'i International
 United Nations office for the Advancement of Women and the Girl Child
 Publication and Poster Presentation of Academic Investigative work, UPR-Humacao, 2007
