

Jaime E. Malavé, PhD

School Affiliation:	Puerto Rico Regional Center, Graduate School of Education
Rank:	Adjunct Instructor
Date of Hire:	2004
Education:	BA-Economics; BM-Music Education; Med-School Administration and Supervision; MM-Music Education; PhD-Music Education

Professional Experiences:

- 1985 to present: InterAmerican University of Puerto Rico, Bayamón Campus
Associate Professor
- 2004 to present: Cambridge College, Puerto Rico Campus – Part-time Faculty
- 1992 to 2002: University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras Campus – Part-time Faculty
- 1972 to 1985: Puerto Rico Department of Education: Special Education; Elementary, Intermediate, and High School; Ramos Antonini School of Music
- 1980 to 1982: First Baptist Church of San Juan – Organist
- 1980 to 1982: Puerto Rico State Band – Clarinetist
- 2002 to present: Independent Appraiser

Courses:

Music for Teacher
 Foundations of Music Education
 Selection and Performance of Music in the School
 Methods in Music Education
 Music Form and Analysis
 Integrating Music into the Elementary Curriculum

Professional Membership:

The College Music Society
 Appraisal Institute

Other Interests:

Church Musician
 Choir Director
 Real Estate Appraiser