

Master of Education With Concentration

Teaching Skills & Methodologies

32 credits, 3 terms full-time • This degree program does not satisfy licensure requirements for K-12 public school teachers.

TEACHING SKILLS & METHODOLOGIES is a program for mid-career teachers.

Outcomes — Students gain current, strategic skills and knowledge that can revitalize teachers' classrooms.

Students effectively research, write and submit a professional, master's project that enhances the students learning for post graduate endeavors;

Careers — Teachers and college faculty will benefit from Teaching Skills and Methodologies. (The program does not lead to licensure.)

Admissions requirements: Bachelor's degree and other general requirements (see Admission).

12 transfer credits may be accepted: Transfer courses must meet all general criteria for transfer (see Transfer of Credit). Three credits must be in content courses; nine credits must be in teaching skills and methodologies.

If nine or more transfer credits are accepted, the Professional Seminar is reduced to two terms and the Theory & Practice of Education to one credit.

Each term, some of the courses listed will be offered.

Satisfactory academic progress — All students must maintain a minimum GPA of 3.0 or be placed on academic probation.

Program subject to change.
