REFUNDS & REPAYMENT

Students who withdraw from Cambridge College after having paid the current term charges or receiving financial aid are subject to the following refund and repayment policies.

Federal guidelines mandate that tuition, fees, and other related charges are prorated based upon each student's enrollment status. Tuition and fees may be refunded. No other charges are refundable.

REFUNDS & REPAYMENT—STUDENTS RECEIVING TITLE IV FINANCIAL AID

Exit Counseling. All borrowers of federal student loans must complete federally mandated exit counseling when graduating or dropping to less than half-time enrollment status. Exit counseling prepares students for repayment. Students must do the exit counseling in its entirety, with complete and correct information; otherwise the degree, diploma, and official transcripts will be withheld.

To complete the exit interview online, go to www.studentloans.gov, and click on Exit Counseling.

Repayment of Federal Funds. Students receiving federal financial aid, who withdraw from the College or stop attending all classes during a term before more than 60% of the term has elapsed, are subject to specific federal regulations.

The amount of Title IV aid that you must repay is determined by the federal formula for return of Title IV funds as specified in Section 484B of the Higher Education Act.

The amount of Title IV aid that you earned during the term before you withdrew is calculated by multiplying the total aid for which you qualified by the percentage of time in the term that you were enrolled (college work-study not included).

Your disbursement or repayment owed:

- If less aid was disbursed to you than you earned, you may receive a late disbursement for the difference.
- If more aid was disbursed to you than you earned, you will be billed for the amount you owe to the Title IV programs and any amount due to the College resulting from the return of Title IV funds used to cover College charges.

Cambridge College will return the unearned aid to Title IV programs as specified by law.

Students who have received federal student financial aid funds are entitled to a refund of any moneys not paid from federal student financial aid program funds (see below).
